Sermon: Easter, Part #1

Sermon available on church facebook page, in email sent to all members, or at www.eastcobbcoc.org

Prayer Needs:

Many years back when I was completing the research for my dissertation (on the influences of young fathers' fathering). I remember receiving information from interviews and plotting the results as I got them. Certainly, the factors changed from week to week as more information was received. (At first, we thought that education level influenced how fathers fathered, but eventually settled on the fact that young fathers father MOSTLY because of how they were fathered themselves.)

Today as many of us read or listen to the facts and figures, findings and predictions of the corona virus around us, it is at best confusing. What they found out last week is not what they are finding out now. Maybe we need to give the researchers a break (and certainly not politicize it) as they reveal to us what they know at that moment in time. Things change and what we knew last month is probably not what we will know next month.

I share that thought because we all need to be able to count on something. Guess what? we can!

FOR GOD IS THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY AND FOREVER.
HIS LOVE ENDURES FOREVER.

Thank God we can feel completely secure in the fact that He will never change and His love for us will never go away. During this difficult time in our history, just remember Who writes the history. God is surely with us!

Not Getting Church Wide Emails. Steps to take:

1. Check your privacy settings on your phone/computer. Make sure it is allowing outside "public" emails to come through.
2. Check your spam and junk mail to make sure it is not going there.
3. Contact Rhonda at rhonda@eastcobbcoc.org. She can check to make sure email address is correct and also if your address has been blocked for some reason.

Please keep Haiti and the village of Owia, St. Vincent in your prayers. The coronavirus has reached those places. Articles coming out of St. Vincent are describing the fear and isolation of the people in Owia.
